Wayne Township Public Schools Welcome New Principals

At the July 16th regular meeting, the Wayne Township Board of Education welcomed two new principals and one assistant principal into the district and promoted a current employee to a principal position.

Scot Burkholder was appointed as the new Principal of Randall Carter Elementary School. Mr. Burkholder comes to Wayne after fifteen years of service with the Plainfield Public School district where he most recently served as an elementary school principal. On his appointment, Mr. Burkholder stated, "I am excited to be given the opportunity to lead an excellent school like Randall Carter, and I am looking forward to collaborating with all the staff, teachers, and community members to offer the kids an excellent education."

Debora Foti, a long-time employee of the district, and most recently Assistant Principal of Schuyler-Colfax Middle School, was promoted and will now serve as Principal of Ryerson Elementary. Ms. Foti is looking forward to working with a dedicated staff and the eager learners of Ryerson Elementary to continue to achieve academic success while supporting them socially and emotionally.

Benjamin Glaz was appointed as the new Assistant Principal at Wayne Hills High School. Mr. Glaz comes to us from Old Bridge High School where he worked as a chemistry teacher for ten years as well as coaching ten seasons of track and field at Monroe and East Brunswick high schools.

The district wishes our newly appointed administrators great success.
